TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Boom Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES McCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Saturday, October 18th, 1873.

A PROCLAMATION,

By the President of the United States of America.

The approaching close of another year brings with it the occasion for renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgment to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for the unnumbered mercies which He has bestowed upon us.

Abundant harvests have been among the rewards of industry. With local exceptions health has been among the many blessings enjoyed. Tranquility at home and peace with other nations have prevailed. Frugal industry is regaining its merited recognition and its merited rewards.

Gradually, but, under the providence of God, surely, as we trust, the nation is recovering from the lingering results of a dreadful civil strife.

For these and all the other mercies vouchsafed, it becomes us as a people to return heartfelt and grateful acknowledgments, and with our thanksgiving for blessings we may unite prayers for the cessation of local and temporary sufferings.

I, therefore, recommend that on Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship, to make their acknowledgments to Almighty God for His bounties and His protection, and to offer to Him prayers for their continuance.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 14th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and [L.S.] of the independence of the United States the ninety-seventh.

U. S. GRANT.

By the President:
HAMILTON FISH,
Secretary of State.

Popular Education.

The plan of devoting the proceeds of the sales of the public lands to educational purposes, can be objected to only by those who cherish the phantom of State sovereignty. Those who really fear consolidation of power in the Federal Government are few; those who use this bugbear are many. It would be unjust to leave the application of the sums raised by the sale of our unappropriated territory, to the unrestricted power of State Legislatures; while it would be very impracticable to take from the States the authority of providing for education. If the money was distributed in proportion to the illiteracy it is intended to annihilate, it would be an appropriate function of Congress to provide laws for carrying out this object. The details of a general system could be settled by the States; and as most of them have at least provisions on paper for education, little or no change would be required.

The object is of such transcendent importance that differences of detail should be no obstacle to securing it.—The want of the times is educational facilities for our youth. The scheme must strike every Southern partisan as the only one which can give his section a high standing in the Republic. The predominating influence of New England ideas in the politics of the country, is due to the fact that New England has, to a greater extent than any other section, provided for the education of her youth. Although the sceptre is departing from her, it is passing into hands which have adopted her educational systems. To the South it can never come until the gross ignorance which we daily witness is driven out. The appropriation of the proceeds of the public lands, in proportion to illiteracy, will secure to the South a greater share than it could obtain under any other division.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

—In the Superior Court to-day Charlotte Gilbert, (colored,) who brought suit against the New York and Charleston Steamship Company to recover $10,000 for being excluded from a state-room on one of their steamers on account of color, was awarded $75.

—By cable from Paris of the 16th. The rumor of difficulties between France and Italy is false. Chevalier Nigra merely returns to Italy on leave of absence. Delegates to the Assembly are beginning to arrive. Numberless contradictory rumors are in circulation about the action to be taken by the different parties at the re-opening of the Assembly. The deputation which met Count de Chambord at Salzburg on the 12th instant is expected to return to Paris to-day. The details of the conference are unknown, but it is believed the negotiations have failed.

—A Wheeling W. Va. telegram of the 16th says: J. J. Sweeny, a candidate for the Legislature, assaulted and beat O. S. Long, editor of the Register, for an abusive article published in yesterday morning's paper. This morning's issue contained further reflections on Sweeney's character. About 11 o'clock Sweeny met Lewis Baker, proprietor, and J. S. Clarkson, local editor of the Register, and, after some words, all three drew their revolvers and commenced firing. Baker was slightly wounded and Clarkson had his arm broken.

—The New York Times has the following special from Chicago: It is said that Senator Carl Schurz, of Missouri, intends to remove to Chicago after the expiration of his term of office. He is looking for a new field in which to operate, and Chicago appears promising. Horace White, managing editor of the Tribune, worships Schurz, and, therefore, the Senator will have an organ. The Senator has still another agency in the person of a brother-in-law named Jussen, at one time connected with the customs. These two men—White and Jussen—are working to have Schurz adopted as the leader of the Germans in Illinois. It is up-hill work, for the cynical Senator has recently been repudiated by them. The main idea is to create a revolt against Mr. A. C. Hessing, the Chicago leader of the Germans, and it is hoped to bring this about before Carl's term shall expire, and if the scheme succeeds he will immediately appears a claimant for the successorship."

WHICH IS THE BEST!

Which is the best Sewing Machine, is a point on which different Companies differ, each, of course, thinks its own the best, but if the point were to be decided by popularity the Howe Machine would surpass all others. It is a noticeable fact that the Howe Company has

SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND

of their Machines in use although having existed but six years, while the Company which claims to have most in use, has only about twice that number, though having existed for twenty years. Until the year 1866, ELIAS HOWE, JR., the

did not manufacture, but was content with receiving the royalty which all Sewing Machine Manufacturers had to pay him for the use of his Patents. A sample of each Machine was sent to Mr. Howe before a license could be obtained. Constant study upon them enabled him to avoid the defects of each and improve upon the excellences of all. This fact explains the

to which Mr. Howe brought his latest pattern of Machine, without which advantages such a result could not have been achieved. These facts should be borne in mind by all who intend to purchase a Sewing Machine. As the purchase of a Machine may be the act of a lifetime with some, care should be taken to PURCHASE ONLY THE LATEST AND BEST.

W. D. Goodrich,

On Market Street Near Third,

WILMINGTON, N C.,

offers the Howe Machine on such easy terms that no one need longer have an excuse for doing without a Sewing Machine.

No pains or expense spared to give thorough satisfaction to every customer.

JOINT SERVICES.—The congregations of the First Baptist and First Presbyterian Churches will have joint services to-morrow in the First Baptist Church at 11 a m, and in the First Presbyterian at 7¾ p m.; Elder Hiden preaching on both occasions.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—County Commissioners met last night pursuant to adjournment. Present, Hon. S. N. Martin, Chairman, Commissioners Chadburn, Rice and Nixon.

The petition of the real estate owners of eight Townships were presented by E. B. Sanders, Esq., counsel for petitioners. Gentlemen from six of the Townships made statements of the value of land to the Board, which were heard with patience and attention. The Board seemed to be convinced that an error had been committed in increasing the valuation of the Township Assessors.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Chadburn and carried by the Board that the Board continue in session until the complaints were disposed of. This promises an early settlement of the question.

After the transaction of other business the Board adjourned.

FACT IS STRANGER THAN FICTION.—While Hood was composing the "Song of the Shirt," and painting with the tints of despair the poor seamstress slaving in her garret, a mechanic almost equally poverty-stricken was working out in an American garret the means of her emancipation. "In poverty, hunger and dirt," Elias Howe, a native of Massachusetts, surrounded by a young family, for whom he was obliged to labor during the day, devoted his after-hours to the construction of a Sewing Machine. This was about the year 1841, and his career since that period up to the present time affords an episode in the annals of intelligent labor pregnant with incidents, and checkered with the lights and shades, which afford another illustration of the old saying that "fact is stranger than fiction." Judicial investigations have demonstrated, in the clearest manner, that to Howe, and to him alone belonged the credit of inventing the first Sewing Machine. His latest achievement, "The New Improved Machine," has created a demand almost beyond the power of the Manufactory to supply.

The Howe Company have recently opened an office in our city on Market street, near Third, where the machine is offered for sale at New York prices. W. D. Goodrich, Agent.

THE First Presbyterian Church, which has been closed for several weeks past for repairs, has been finished, and is now ready for use. Upon personal inspection we find that great improvements have been made; on the outside, the roof and spire has been examined, and new slates and gutters have replaced those which were broken;—the entire woodwork on the inside (which is finished with native quilted yellow pine) has been re-polished and varnished, the walls and ceiling have been painted a soft and pleasant light slate color, delicately shaded around the cornices; every pew has been supplied with new cushions, all in uniform style, the covering being crimson reps; each pew has been supplied with black walnut book racks; all of the gas fixtures have been removed, with the exception of those about the pulpit and those about the organ, and two very large and beautiful reflectors have been placed in the apex of the ceiling, which will supply an abundance of soft light, sufficient to illuminate the whole auditorium.

To Mr. E. T. Hancock, of the firm of Hancock & Daggett, to whom was entrusted the matter of superintending the painting, and to Mr. John A. Parker, the well-known painter, who executed the work, too much praise cannot be bestowed, for the thorough and artistic manner in which they have performed their duties; and as a specimen of good taste and thorough workmanship, the painting done in this edifice will compare favorably with any in any church in the country.

The upholstering was gotten up in first class style, and of the very best material, at the establishment of D. A. Smith & Co., and adds greatly not only to the general appearance of the church but to the comfort of the audience.

Messrs. Dart Brothers, plumbers and gas fitters, of this city, had in charge the matter of the illumination of the Church, and most satisfactorily have they performed their task. All the old arrangements of gas fixtures in the body of the Church have been done away with, and in their stead there has been placed in position two newly patented lighting apparatus, consisting each of a circle seven feet in diameter, around which are fifty-two gas jets, skillfully arranged, above which are series of double-reflecting mirrors, which throw the light into all parts of the house.—This style of illuminating churches and other public places, though used extensively of late in Northern cities, is new here, and will attract much attention. The gas for these reflectors is supplied by service pipes connecting with mains in the street, independent of the other service pipes now in the church, it being found that they were insufficient to supply the necessary quantity of gas for the new arrangement.

To the ladies of the congregation of this church belongs the credit of having raised by their exertions the money necessary to pay for the new lighting apparatus—$550—the Messrs. Dart having generously contributed to them the sum of $100 for that purpose. The ladies also raised the money and paid for the upholstering—$600—which, with some other improvements that they have had made, makes the sum of over $1200 that they have raised and appropriated to the adornment of their church.

The painting and other work cost $1000; paid for by the trustees of the church.

This church, heretofore one of the finest and best finished in the State, now presents an appearance truly beautiful, and does great credit to this the metropolitan city of North Carolina. All of the windows are new, of stained glass, put in a year ago by the exertions of the ladies of the congregation and the children of the Sabbath School, and are memorial windows, each one being dedicated to the memory of departed ones, who loved their church and who labored for her prosperity. The organ is said to be the largest and finest in the State. The church will be opened for Divine service to-morrow.

The Raleigh News says: It was understood by the Press of the State that a special meeting of the inkslingers of North Carolina would be held in Raleigh during the Fair week. Accordingly on yesterday (Thursday) afternoon an impromptu meeting was held at the Secretary's office and adjourned to meet in the parlors of Jordan Stone, Esq., at 7½ p. m. The meeting was duly called to order at the above time by the President, Maj. J. A. Engelhard, of the Wilmington Journal. Capt. Wm. Biggs, of the Tarboro Southerner, was appointed Secretary. This being an informal meeting of the Association to hear reports of Committees on special business, Col. Cameron, of the Hillsboro Recorder, Chairman of the Committee on Legal Advertisements, made a verbal report.

The Chairman read on this subject a semi-official statement from Maj. Mann, of the Wilmington Post, which was fully discussed by members present, including Messrs. Argo, of the Mechanic's and Workingmen's Journal, Myrover, of the Fayetteville Gazette, Robinson, of the Fayetteville Statesman, Wilson, of the Kinston Gazette, Harris, of the Concord Sun, Manning of the Roanoke News, and others.

After a full and free discussion of all matters pertaining to the duties of the respective Committees the following resolution were introduced by Mr. Robinson, of the Fayetteville Statesman:

Resolved, That, having full confidence in the discretion of the Committee, which have invited our expression of views, we will make no explicit recommendation, but remit the drafting of the bills in regard to Legal Advertisements, Agricultural Interests and Immigration, to the gentlemen appointed at the State Convention of the Press Association.

— Joseph C. Cloud, the oarsman, who started from Philadelphia some three months since to row to New Orleans by canals and rivers, died on Tuesday last five miles above Plaquemine. Cloud was found in his boat in almost exhausted condition Monday, and died the next day. His diary shows he had been suffering with what is termed heavy shakes for some days before his death.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18.

In the Irish convention, in a debate upon the following resolution: The present system of public schools, ignoring all supernatural authority and making God first and knowledge the last thing to be learned, is a curse to our country and a floodgate of atheism and sensuality, and of civil, social and national corruption to the country, if false to the church. That education to be effective must be religious.

Mr. Keily, of Virginia, thought the resolution should be recommitted to a committee with instructions to modify it. He was by virtue of his office as Mayor of Richmond, President of the Board of Public Schools. He had been elected Mayor by a constituency which was about 80 per cent. Protestant The bible was not read in the schools of Richmond, and he had the assurance of the board that no religious instruction was taught in them. He was not in sympathy with the resolution nor could he vote for it without stultifying himself which he did not propose to do.

Father Phelon, of St. Louis, defended the resolution and said we have nothing to do with Richmond or its schools, and if religious instruction was excluded from them as Mr. Kelly said, they were most objectionable of all schools. Public men of America were educated in public schools and were exhibitions of system and they were the most corrupt and dishonest of any country in the world. Men can steal in this country with impunity, provided the amount is large enough. That the children of the country go heels over head to the devil must be attributed to the education they receive in public schools which does not fit them for the temptations of the world. In these schools men of science are honored and eulogized, but the name of Jesus Christ is not allowed to be mentioned with reverence. These children turn out to be learned horse thieves, scholastic counterfeiters, and are well posted in all schemes of deviltry.

Mr. Harley, of Pa., denounced the resolution, as it contemplated a union of Church and State.

President Dwyer said that the resolution meant no such thing, and he did not want such an impression to get abroad. He advised that the resolution be changed so as to simply favor Catholic schools.

Mr. Harley proceeded, and said that the Catholics had gained a great victory in driving the bible out of the public schools.

Father Graham, interrupting him, said that the Church did not drive the bible out of the schools. The purpose was to put in them a correct version of the bible and the Catholic cathecism.

Mr. Harley. Exactly. Now I ask you, is it just or right that we should introduce our Catholic catechism among the Protestants, when we will not allow the Protestants, who are in the majority, to use bibles in the public schools.

Mr. Chance, of Delaware, thought this was a fling in the wrong direction. They might favor Catholic schools, but they should not denouce protestant schools.

Father Bolter, of Kansas, thought the resolution went too far, it should not be forgotten that the public schools of this country had served as a model for Catholic parochial schools and in that respect had done good. The main difference between them was one of religion only.

Father Phelan again spoke, and said he thought the delegates from the East had not studied this subject enough, he frankly confessed that the Catholics stood before the country as enemies of public schools, and reasons therefor should be stated—he considered these reasons were embodied in the resolution. They must say they would as soon send their children into a pest house, or bury them, as to let them go to public schools, they were assured they would lose faith. They were afraid the child who left home in the morning would come back with something in the heart as black as hell.

Father Mangin.—The public school system is a nuisance. The words were none too strong.

Mr. Chance moved to recommit the resolutions, with instructions to report one favoring Catholic schools, which was carried.

The following substitute was reported for the education resolution: That the system of State education, now established in most of the States, by its failure to provide proper religious instruction for the young and its enlightening head, to the entire neglect of heart culture, meets with our unqualified reprobation; that it unjustly taxes a large class of our people who cannot without danger to the morality of their offspring avail themselves of its advantages.

The resolution was adopted unanimously.

A. M. Keely, of Richmond, was elected President, and M. J. Grifin, of Philadelphia, Secretary.
